CHEF YONG

Primul restaurant chinezesc din Romania

Cea mai buna mancare chinezeasca din 1980

In 1980, Nicolae Ceausescu, Presedintele Republicii Socialiste Romania, intors din vizita in China, a decis deschiderea unui restaurant chinezesc in Romania.

Astfel, a fost inaugurat, in 1980, restaurantul Nanjing, primul restaurant chinezesc in Romania. Cei patru bucatari chinezi special trimisi din China, la solicitarea expresa a lui Nicolae Ceausescu, pentru a deschide Restaurantul Nanjing, au instruit prima generatie de bucatari romani specializati in bucatele care inca sunt pregatite si servite in restaurantul nostru.

Pana in 1996, restaurantul Nanjing a fost unicul restaurant chinezesc nu numai din Bucuresti ci din intreaga tara.

Unii dintre ospatarii si bucatarii care in 1980 erau noi angajati ai acestui local de elita inca va servesc pana in prezent. Condusi de Yong, chef-ul nostru chinez, personalul nostru va sta la dispozitie pentru a transforma vizita dumneavoastra in momente placute de relaxare.

NANJING

The First Chinese Restaurant in Romania

The best place for Chinese Food since 1980

In 1980, Nicolae Ceausescu, the President of the Socialist Republic of Romania, upon his return from a visit in China, decided the opening of a Chinese restaurant in Romania.

Following Ceausescu's decision, Restaurant Nanjing, the first Chinese restaurant in Romania, was opened in the already existing Minerva restaurant. The four Chinese chefs detached from China, at the express request formulated by Nicolae Ceausescu for opening the Nanjing restaurant, trained the first generation of cooks specialized in preparing the dishes which are still served today.

Until 1996, restaurant Nanjing remained the unique Chinese restaurant not only in Bucharest but in all the country.

Under the supervision of our Chinese chef, Yong, some of the waiters and the cooks hired in 1980 are still serving you today. Led by Yong, our Chinese chef, our staff is here to transform your visit at our restaurant in relaxing moments of pleasure.

DESPRE RATA PEKING - ABOUT PEKING DUCK

Se spune adesea ca in China sunt, in esenta, doua lucruri pe care trebuie sa le faci: unul este sa urci pe Marele Zid Chinezesc, al doilea este sa mananci Rata Peking.

Istoria Ratei Peking

In timpul Dinastiei Ming, acum mai bine de 600 de ani, sute de bucatari din toata China au calatorit spre Beijing pentru a-l impresiona pe imparat cu delicioase gatite si pentru a obtine un titlu extrem de ravnit in acea epoca: titlul de bucatar al curtii imparatesti.

Dupa zile intregi de festin culinar, la masa imparatului a fost servita, pentru prima data, mica ratușca originara din canalele de navigatie de langa orasul Nanjing: Rata Peking.

Vreme indelungata, mica ratușca Peking a fost servita doar la palatele imparatilor chinezi iar reteta a fost tinuta in mare secret.

Cu toate acestea, in 1911, odata cu caderea dinastiei Ching, unul dintre bucatarii care au parasit Orasul Interzis a introdus in restaurantul pe care si l-a deschis in Beijing si celebra Rata Peking.

Acum, la mai bine de 600 de ani, mica Rata Peking poate face deliciul dvs aici, in Restaurantul Nan Jing. Din Nanjing China, in Nan Jing Romania, o experienta inedita, pe care nu trebuie sa o ratati: Rata Peking!

Prepararea Ratei Peking

Prepararea in mod traditional a ratei Peking presupune o tehnica speciala, pe care numai un bucatar iscusit o detine. Deoarece procesul traditional de preparare este extrem de laborios si indelungat, rata Peking trebuie comandata cu 48 de ore inainte.

Servire

Rata Peking este servita in mod traditional sub forma a trei preparate distincte: pielea este considerata o delicatasa si se serveste impreuna cu sosul hoisin si ceapa verde, in clatite din faina de orez; Carnea de rata se serveste cu batonase de castravete impreuna cu sosul hoisin, in clatite de faina de orez, sub forma unui sandwich; La final, este servita o supa delicioasa din oasele de rata dezodate.

It is often said that in China there are, in essence, two things that you have to do: one is to climb The Great Wall, the second is to eat Peking Duck.

Legend of Peking Duck

During the Ming Dynasty, more than 600 years ago, hundreds of chefs from all over China traveled to Beijing to impress the emperor by cooking special delights and get a highly desired title in that era: Chef of the Royal Court.

After many days of culinary feast, at the emperor's dinner was served, for the first time, the little duck native from navigation channels near the city of Nanjing: the Peking Duck. For a long time, the little Peking Duck was served only in the palaces of the Chinese emperors and the recipe has been secretly kept.

However, in 1911, together with the fall of the Ching Dynasty, one of the chefs who left the Forbidden City, opened in Beijing his own restaurant and the famous Peking Duck was introduced in the menu.

Now, after more than 600 years, the Peking Duck may also be a delight for you, here, in Nan Jing Restaurant. From Nan Jing China, to Nan Jing Romania, there is a new experience that you should not miss: The Peking Duck!

Preparation of Peking Duck

The traditional preparation of Peking Duck involves a special technique, held only by a skilled chef. Because the traditional preparation process is extremely laborious and takes a long time, Peking duck must be ordered with 48 hours in advance.

Serving the Peking Duck

Peking Duck is traditionally served in three distinct dishes: the skin is considered a delicacy and it is served with hoisin sauce and green onion, covered in rice flour pancakes; the duck's meat is served with cucumber sticks together with the hoisin sauce and covered in rice flour pancakes, under the aspect of a sandwich; at the end it is served a delicious soup of duck bones.
